6. Discuss and approve assigned Membership Rollcall lists and questionnaires. Guideline questionnaires were handed out, reviewed and a few additions were made. Members were divided out amongst board members so all members are contacted. We need to add monthly updates on progress of this task to monthly meetings. No approval was needed.
7. Discuss remaining Chamber Events for 2022. Golf Tournament is underway, food for event will be discussed with country club. Mission Properties has given us permission to have the Craft Fall Festival in the Hubbard building. The building could hold about 15 vendors inside and also have vendors outside on the street where there are no vendors or houses. Food trucks will be in the parking lot next to Taekwondo building. Children's entertainment will be in the event lost. Create a food drive, have people bring can and dry goods for wrist bands for the kids. Porta-Potty will be priced out for this event. Craft Fall Festival info has been mailed out to last years vendors and an article will be placed in the newspaper. Carmen Beasley (Intern) will contact Food Truck vendors. Laura Freer will create map for festival. We need to secure a petting zoo. Shockley State Farm and Just Wright Nutrition will host a Chick-Fil-A Food truck in downtown Whitewright on Wednesday, June 22nd in Event Lot.
8. Discuss and approve New Business of the Month and New Memberships. Courtney Owen, realtor and Dodge Electric joined the Chamber this month. June is Tractor Pull, we will present plaque today and it needs to go in the paper next week.
